

New Plymouth Girls' High School

First choice in educating young women

Mrs Ellis welcomes new international students 2009

We are off to a flying start!

- Warm welcome to their new school
- First social outing
- Finding their way around school

New Plymouth Girls' High School News! February 2009

The international students at NPGHS are an integral part of the school community. This year they are led by Grace To and Holly Otene.

Grace and Holly are bubbling with enthusiasm and they have proposed a number of activities to ensure the international students ;

- Have fun
- Integrate well into the school and wider community
- Contribute to the life of the school

From left Mrs Ellis, Fotuviri Kalsakau & Marlene Kalsakau (cousins) from Vanuatu, Laura Hannula an exchange student from Finland, Vicky Sum from Hong Kong, Saki Muraoka from Japan, Xiaojun Mo from China, Aimi Satonaka from Japan and Michiko Hattori from Japan.

The students join our current international students attending NPGHS. These girls come from Thailand, Korea, Vietnam, India, Japan, Hong Kong, Cambodia and Germany.

Coming Events;

Multi Ethnic Street Parade,

NPGHS international students will take part in national costume and carrying their countries flag. March 28th

NPGHS welcomes enquiries from international students from around the world. We offer a limited number of places to students from varied countries.

Please visit our school websites to learn more about the school.

www.npghs.school.nz or www.npghs.com

"There is always a beginning and an end but the best part is the journey in between."

Annie Leitch (1928)

Sarah and Yanki enter into the fun of bowlarama.